OMEGALIN PUR

Natural support for coat, skin and gut

Contains high-quality mucilage and omega-3 fatty acids

Promote a healthy gastric mucosa

Low starch content

With extruded (cracked flax seeds)

No crushing or cooking necessary

Supports the intestinal function

Omegalin Pur is a natural feed supplement that supports the intestinal function and ensures a shiny coat and healthy skin. Due to the gently extruded (cracked) linseed, it is suitable as a supplement to the daily concentrate feed both to promote a healthy stomach lining and to improve intestinal function. It can also be given to horses that are emaciated or prone to colic. Omegalin Pur is low in starch and can be fed directly at any time WITHOUT COOKING.

Feeding recommendation: Omegalin Pur can be administered with up to 25 g - 40 g per 100 kg body weight as required. For a large horse (600 kg) we recommend an administration of up to 250 g per horse. The feeding recommendation refers to a roughage intake (hay) of 1.5 kg per 100 kg body weight and day. Feeding can be done without soaking.
